APS 330 Attachment G Remuneration disclosures

QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES

The board of directors is responsible for determining and reviewing compensation arrangements for the executive team, this includes senior managers and material risk takers as described below. The remuneration committee was established to assist the Board in meeting its responsibilities.

The remuneration committee comprises three Non-Executive Directors (NEDs) all of who are independent. The remuneration committee meets at least twice a year and is required to make recommendations to the board matters related to the remuneration arrangements for NEDs and executives. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) attends certain remuneration committee meetings by invitation, where management input is required. The CEO is not present during any discussions related to his own remuneration arrangements.

The board approves the remuneration arrangements of the CEO and other executives and all awards including incentive plans and other employee benefit programs. The board also sets the aggregate remuneration of NEDs, which is then subject to shareholder approval, and NED fee levels.

To ensure the remuneration committee is fully informed when making remuneration decisions, the remuneration committee may seek external remuneration advice. During the year the Company did not seek advice in relation to remuneration.

The remuneration policy applies to 'responsible persons' as defined in Prudential Standard CPS 520 Fit & Proper, with the exception of the auditor. The auditor's remuneration is overseen by the Audit Committee. Responsible persons are taken to include Senior Managers and Material Risk Takers. For BNK, this includes the follow executives:

- Managing Director
- Group Chief Financial Officer
- Chief Risk Officer

Further information on the remuneration committee's role, responsibilities and membership can be seen at:

https://bnk.com.au/investor-centre/corporate-governance/

(b) For executives, BNK's remuneration strategy aims to attract and retain executives who will create shareholder value and fairly and responsibly reward them for performance. The Company aims to reward executives with a level and mix of remuneration commensurate with their position and responsibilities within the Company and aligned with market practice of entities of a similar size and complexity.

Remuneration levels are considered annually through a remuneration review that considers market data, insights into remuneration trends, the performance of the company and individual, and the broader economic environment.

There were no significant changes made to the remuneration policy during the year.

The remuneration of risk and control personnel is reviewed and approved by the remuneration committee and determined independently of the functions they oversee.

(c) The remuneration committee considers credit, market, liquidity, operational, capital and strategic risk when implementing remuneration measures for executives.

Short and long term incentives are dependent on achieving certain measures.

These measures have been determined by the remuneration committee and approved by the Board having considered:

- the outcomes of the Company's business activities;
- the risks related to the Company's business activities taking into account, where relevant, the cost of the associated capital; and
- the time necessary for the outcomes of those business activities to be reliably measured.

There have not been any significant changes to the nature and type of performance measures over the past year. These performance measures were chosen as they represent the key drivers for the achievement of the business objectives and overall success of the business and provide a framework for delivering sustainable value.

BNK is unique in that it has no peers with a similar size and complexity. These KPI's are aligned with key outcomes targeted as part of BNK's strategic plans. The Board is confident achieving these outcomes will lead to generation of sustainable returns for shareholders in the long term.

Non-Executive Directors do not receive any variable or performance based remuneration nor do they participate in any incentive programs.
